An Experience of Death. Bishop Bowman, of St. Louis, in a sermon in Philadelphia last Sunday,

"On my return from Japan I preached in California, and probably overworked myself, and on the last Sunday in February, after holding divine service in my St. Louis church, I returned home, where I was immediately taken sick with a lingering fever, which the physician predicted would end fatally. At this point I seemed to fall into a kind of ecstacy, when I actually did not know whether I was alive or dead. I imagined that I was on board of a most mag-
